Sir,

Sub : Employees Resuming duty after COVID illness-Reg.

It is observed that there are instances wherein the family members of the employees have tested positive wherein the employee has tested negative for COVID-19. In such cases, the employee although tested negative should be in home quarantine for 14 days. After the quarantine period he shall get an rt-PCR test (COVID swab test) done. If the test is negative, the employee can join duty along with a fitness certificate. If the test is positive, he shall wait for another 7 days and get test done again and join duty, if he is tested negative with a certificate of fitness from the consulting doctor.

This issues with the approval of Chief Commissioner.

Yours faithfully

(Dr. Manjula D Hosmani)

Additional Commissioner
