Advisory - 7

Sir,

Sub : Employees Resuming duty after COVID illness-Reg

Some of the employees who have tested positive for COVID-19 are undergoing treatment either at home or at the hospital. They are advised home isolation/quarantine for a period of 14 to 17 days. Some of the employees are completing the quarantine period and will soon be joining office. In this regard the following advisory is issued in consultation with Additional Director, CGHS, Hyderabad.

(i) An employee with mild/moderate symptoms of COVID and advised quarantine shall get an rt-PCR test(COVID swab test) done between 5-10 days of illness . If the test is positive, the test should be repeated after 14 days. If the re-test is negative, then the officer can join duty along with a Fitness certificate. If the re-test is positive, he shall wait for 7 days and get the test done again and there after.

(ii) In case of Severe symptoms of COVID, immediate test of rt-PCR should be got done and undergo quarantine for 14 days. Later rt-PCR test to be repeated after 14days and if negative, he shall join duty. If the repeat test is positive, the officer shall continue in quarantine and repeat the test after 7 days. If the test is negative, he shall join office.

This issues with the approval of the Chief Commissioner.

Yours faithfully

(Dr. Manjula D Hosmani)
